The Classics Show Choir

Wheaton Warrenville South High School located in Wheaton, Illinois is home to The Classics show choir. The Classics is an extracurricular audition competitive show choir comprised of vocal and instrumental performers in grades 9-12. Over the last several years, the program has enjoyed tremendous successes both in competition and program development. The most significant event has been the hosting of the Choral Classic show choir and traditional choral performance competition which drew schools from all over the country and was attended by more than 3,000 spectators and participants.
