

"It's a Wonderful Life" Golf Outing Honoring Joe Coburn

Friday, September 14, 2007

One year ago, my dad was diagnosed with stage four cancer. I'm thankful that my dad is still with us and we thought a golf outing was a great way to celebrate. It's been an emotional road that you can read about at www.joesinformation.blogspot.com (see "one year anniversary" for summary). I hope you can join friends and family as we celebrate the life of Joe Coburn.
