RE: Illinois Conference Youth Initiative Spring Retreat, March 12-14, 2010

Hope, Peace, Love and Joy to You this Advent Season!

The Illinois Conference Youth Initiative Spring Retreat will be March 12-14, 2010. This event is for youths in the 7th through 12th grades.

All forms for the retreat are on the Illinois Conference Youth Initiative web page (icyi.org). If you do not have on-line access, please call me and I will make arrangements for copies to be mailed out to you. Registrations won't be accepted until all forms are turned in with a check for the exact amount. Please pay attention to the following instructions concerning how to register for this event:

- Only one registration form per person
 - Make sure you fill out pages 2 and 3 of the registration form
- Mail in total amount and all registration forms from your church at the same time
 - Deadline is March 1, 2010; Cost is $125.00 per person
 - Ropes course is $20.00 per person (please send separate check for this)
 - No registrations accepted after the deadline, unless space is available
- For youth to attend there must be one adult per six youths with male/female chaperones for male/female youths as required by the Illinois Conference Safe Church Policy
- All adult chaperones/pastors attending must fill out a disclosure form

Packing list:

- Sleeping bag and pillow
 - Towels and toiletries
 - Winter clothes for outside (camp fire and/or high ropes course)
- (If you bring items to listen to music the items are your responsibility. We will not replace the items if lost or stolen. Cell phones are okay, but you will be asked not to use them during program time. Please note that cell phones don't often work once on the camp site.

In order to finalize details with Pilgrim Park all forms must be received by the deadline of March 1, 2010. You will not be allowed check in at the retreat without all the forms required. Mailing address for forms/check: Rev. Paula Comper; P.O. Box 328; Beecher, IL 60401.

The Illinois Conference Youth Initiative is looking forward to seeing you at this retreat!
